

Sensory Friendly Museum Kits

AVAILABLE DURING GENERAL MUSEUM HOURS

Families with members on the autism spectrum or with sensory processing disorders may request a free kit to use during visits to Please Touch Museum. Created in conjunction with occupational therapists and local families, these kits are designed to create a welcoming and positive experience. They contain noise-canceling headphones, a coloring book and fidget toys.

To request a kit, inquire at the Admissions Desk.

For additional information, contact education@pleasetouchmuseum.org

Sponsored by

